	The Owl Who Was Afraid of the Dark	Jill Tomlinson	Plop is a baby owl. Perfect in every way - except for one. He's afraid of the dark. But he soon discovers, through a variety of new friends, that dark can be fun and exciting and magical.
	Ruby's Worry	Tom Percival	Ruby loves being Ruby. Until, one day, she finds a worry. At first it's not such a big worry, and that's all right, but then it starts to grow. It gets bigger and bigger every day and it makes Ruby sad. How can Ruby get rid of it and feel like herself again?
	The Giraffe, the Pelly and Me	Roald Dahl	Billy's biggest wish is to turn an old wooden house into a wonderful sweet-shop. But then he finds a giraffe, a pelly and a monkey living inside! They become best friends and when they meet the richest man in all of England, there's a chance that Billy's dream just might come true . . .
	#Goldilocks (A Hashtag Cautionary Tale)	Jeanne Willis	Everyone loves Goldilocks' hilarious online videos, but in her quest to get more likes, more laughs and more hits, she tries something a little more daring: stealing porridge #pipinghot, breaking chairs #fun, and using someone else's bed #sleep. What will Daddy Bear do when he sees that online?
	Flat Stanley	Jeff Brown	Stanley Lambchop was just an ordinary boy – until a noticeboard fell on him. Now he's flat as a pancake! Being flat is fantastic – he can be rolled up, sent in the post and even fly like a kite. But it's not all fun and games... there are thieves in town. Can Flat Stanley be a hero?

	Malala's Magic Pencil	Malala Yousafzai	If Malala had a magic pencil like the boy in the TV show she used to watch, she'd use it to "draw a better world, a peaceful world....erase war, poverty and hunger....draw girls and boys together as equals". Told in her own words, this is the story of Malala Yousafzai's childhood in Swat Valley, Pakistan.
	Horrid Henry	Francesca Simon	The first ever Horrid Henry book in which Henry tries to be perfect for one day, learns to dance, argues with his arch enemy Moody Margaret and goes on holiday
